In this 2011 tax return, the LVFD is self reporting a serious and material error in prior year filings. This error is show on page one with the adjustment to reported net assets. All prior year returns are correct in regard to cash receipts and expenditures, but the assets reported are incorrect. These mistakes are due to the complexity of the modern fire service where government assets are used hand in hand with private department assets. To further complicate the issue, our local governments provide us with two fire trucks on what is effectively a loan and maintains title, these truck can be removed from the department and their use is controlled by the local government. These trucks have not been listed as assets. The primary correction is with the receipt of a $300,000 fire truck from the federal Home Land Security Grant that was not listed as an asset. This truck is titled to the department and can be sold and reinvested as the department sees fit. In the current treasurers opinion, this truck is an asset and should be recorded as such. In addition, one fire station is located on a 99 year ground lease, a fire station building was constructed with private department funds. This building is owned by the department and not leverage or tied to the lease in any way. The former chief's position was that without ownership of the land, the building was not an asset. This has been corrected and recorded as an asset as it owned by the LVFD

These corrections were reported to the board of directors, and this body voted to self report these problems and provide correct numbers. Under the former chief, the department did not maintain records necessary to provide accurate financial statements, such as a balance sheet. A complete inventory of all assets has been compiled and the board is now requiring an annual inventory count. This rural department is undergoing a painful transition from running their business with numbers recorded on a scrap of paper, to formal financial statements. This correction in no way represents one dollar missing or being used inappropriately, only an understatement of assets. This understatement was in part due to a lack of education and professional help in determining what pieces of equipment were assets. Detailed inventory records are available for immediate inspection by both the Treasurer and Equipment manager.

The purpose of this correction is provide a clear and accurate representation of the departments financial position and prevent any accusations that the department has in any way hidden the use of these funds.
